“ Victor loved his sports, his professional accomplishments, his hobbies and the beauty of life around him but he was truly his happiest when he was either with his family and/or my Mom or talking about you-that is when he was radiant in his joy and pride- he was so proud of all of you. He always had a smile(and a big hug) to greet me when he and my Mom picked me up at the airport and by the time that we got to car he would bring me up to date on his latest visits or conversations from his family. Whenever Victor would take us out to dinner, he always referred to my Mom and I as" his girls" and he was overjoyed to be with us. I will miss him and I pray for all of you at this difficult time. I pray that your memories help to bring a smile through your tears. I pray that you feel God's strength and presence beside you to comfort you, in front of you to guide you and behind you to sustain you.
