“ I knew Violet as a client of the Caring Place only briefly since August 2022 when I began volunteering there. She will remain in my memory as one of the sweetest and most serene persons I have known in all of my 72 years. My wife Patti was also very much impressed with Violet's serenity and dry wit on the same day that we saw her at the Caring Place for the very last time. She's with Jesus now and that's a fact. -- Tom Heckmann

“ Violet was always my favorite at the pancake shop. I remember running into the kitchen to hug her when I was a little girl. So sorry for your loss. May God give you peace in this time of sorrow. Love from Tammy (Sadie's daughter)
