

Waldo Caldwell

January 19, 1939 - September 17, 2021

Waldo Caldwell, 82, of Hot Springs passed away September 17, 2021. He was born January 19, 1939, in Possum Kingdom, AR to the late Jimmy and Ruth Caldwell.

Waldo was of the Baptist Faith. He was a Veteran and served in the United States Army. After his time in the Army, Waldo worked and retired from Coca Cola after many years. He enjoyed fishing, being in the woods, hunting and running his show dogs. Waldo was a baseball pitcher and loved cheering on the LA Dodgers and the Arkansas Razorbacks. He was a devoted Son, Husband, Brother, Uncle and Friend. Waldo loved his family and enjoyed hosting many fish fries at the picnic house. He was deeply loved and will be deeply missed.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Jimmy and Ruth Caldwell; brothers, Theodore "Pop" Caldwell and Junior Lee "Joker" Caldwell; and sister, Vera Mae Littleton.

Survivors include his devoted wife of 57 years Margaret Caldwell; brother, Glen Caldwell; sister, Wilma Robertson; sister, Bernice Hampton and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Pallbearers will be Jeff Fuller, Eric Reed, Kevin Reed, Mark Robertson, Scotty Caldwell and Terry Bates.

Visitation will be 10:00 AM Wednesday until service time at 11:00 AM with Brother Sonny Porterfield officiating.

Burial will follow at New Mount Pleasant Cemetery.
