“ My thoughts and prayers are sent to Wayne's family and friends.....and also to my dear friend Wayne. I hope Heaven is ready for that beautiful smile and crazy sense of humor! He really enjoyed teasing me when we were younger! He once chased me down the Automba Road and I fell in the ditch. When I stood up my arms and legs were red and we thought I had cut myself, only to find out I rolled in a patch of wild strawberries! Needless to say, he thought that story was worth repeating every chance he got! Wayne, may your new journey be peaceful and beautiful. Thank you for your kindness and humor. Hug

“ Farewell Old Friend. I'll never play your favorite hole, the 9th at Essex Park Golf Course, without remembering the tremendous drives you unleashed down that fairway. I hope you will reserve a celestial tee time for me and the rest of your golfing buddies. Rest in Peace.

“ I always thought Uncle Wayne was one of the funniest guys to be around. I loved going to spend time with him over summer breaks when i was younger. He would let us work with him and he actually paid us little brats each week! Im glad i was able to see him earlier this year, i love you Uncle Wayne.

“ I can remember sitting around the table, drinking coffee with Uncle and he always had something funny to share. There was never a lack of entertainment. His laugh would just make me laugh. I will miss him....Robin

“ We have lost a true friend. I have had the pleasure of playing golf with Wayne at 9 different courses in the last few years. It just will not be the same. Good luck Wayne and save a tee time for me.
