“ My condolences to the family. Brother Briscoe was a caring man. Over the years of attending the same church, he took the time to welcome me back from my long overseas work rotations in Iraq. When it came time for me to have to go back to work, he would always give a caring word of assurance and ask when I would be back, that always meant a lot to me. Bro. Briscoe you will be missed, but not forgotten. Tim Graves, U.S. Embassy, Baghdad, Iraq.
