*Dear Judy and kids, so sorry to read the paper and learn the news. I have lots of memories from those Weyerhaeuser picnics at Majestic Lodge and our occasional get-togethers. I remember one early Sunday morning when Bill talked me into riding along and helping him on a paper route. After a few miles of weaving in and out of country roads, trying to fold papers and smelling all that ink, I begged him to take me back to your house! He thought it was funny; I wasn't laughing! He always had that sly mischievous smile like he was about to prank me...
