“ I miss Bill so much in church choir. He would always make his way to our orchestra players after practice or church service and shake our hands and tell us how glad he was that we were there. He shook my hand last Sunday, March 3rd, my not knowing it would be the last time. I miss him so much and pray the Lord realizes how great a man he is. He will be so missed and loved. “ Him standing at the door and waiting for us to come in and saying there is my favorite red head 😊. Uncle Bill always had to have a hat on everytime I see a man with a hat I think of him and always listening to him and my father debate and discuss politics, religion, and last but not least baseball.
