

William "Fletch" McKamie

December 1, 1955 - April 28, 2019

William Fletcher "Fletch" McKamie, 63, of Magnolia, Arkansas passed away unexpectedly Sunday April 28th 2019.

He was born December 1st 1955 in Magnolia Arkansas to William "Bill" Fletcher and Mary Amanda (Bullock) McKamie. He married Laurie Fenn July 23rd 1977 and together they had a daughter.

Fletcher spent many years working in the oil industry as his father did before him. Fletcher enjoyed spending time, joking and laughing with his daughter, son-in-law, grandchildren and friends that he considered to be his family. He lived life to the fullest and loved his family and friends deeply.

Fletcher is survived by his daughter, Shillo (Jeff) Hardwick; his four grandchildren, Abbie, Hunter, Hallie and Hendrix of Salt Lake City Utah; his aunt, Dorthey "Dot"; his best friend and "brother", Randy Machen; his partner, Mary Livingston and so many other close friends and family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Fletcher and Mary Amanda McKamie.

A private graveside service will be held for close family only.

A celebration of my dad's life will be held June 1st at 1:00 PM at the Magnolia Country Club 1171 Highway 79 S in Magnolia Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ He is my brother who I miss dearly, loved unconditionally, and think of everyday. Our souls will meet again in a higher universal dimension. Fly high Fletcher.

Kelley McKamie - January 24, 2021 at 01:28 PM

LI

“ Yes I remember His grandmother Elizabeth Bullock and sister Kelly , I pray for his family and friends in Eldorado Ar and his daughter during this very hard time

linda - May 09, 2019 at 06:50 PM

JM

Fletcher brought so much fun to Roosevelt when he moved to Utah from Arkansas. I am so sad to hear of his passing. I will remember him as a dear friend. Janie Labrum Moysh janie Moysh - May 19, 2019 at 12:45 PM